

Datanational Corporation Named a “2011 Best of Michigan Business” by Corp! Magazine

Farmington Hills, MI. - Datanational Corporation, a leading provider of enterprise software solutions, is honored to be named a “2011 Best of Michigan Business” by Corp! Magazine. Corp! Magazine strives to inform, intrigue, and entertain business owners and top level executives by providing features, news and profiles. This business to business publication features success stories, best practices and strategies that CEOs, business owners, executives and managers will find useful and relevant. They pride themselves on not making editorial decisions based on how much coverage a story has received in other media, or how it ties into the latest scandal in the business world. Rather, Corp! is dedicated to raising the profile of business in our communities and driving it forward.

Datanational is pleased to have been nominated for this award. Since our incorporation in 1979, we have been providing expertise, innovation, and new technology products. We have many out-of-state relationships that we tie back to Michigan. Due to our broad geographical exposure, our clients with divisions worldwide are able to function efficiently with peace of mind while we provide managed hosting services. Corp!’s award recognizes that our services provide an opportunity for companies to maintain business in multiple locations, including Michigan. Throughout the years, we have remained committed to our core values, our employees, customers, and our community. We're a one-stop organization for innovative IT solutions. Positioned to help businesses meet today's growing demands and those of the future, we are the premier vendor of choice for customers looking for technology solutions.
