Datanational Corporation to Host Disaster Recovery Protection for Windows Webinar

Farmington Hills, MI. - Datanational Corporation, a leading provider of enterprise software solutions, will be hosting a webinar addressing High Availability and Disaster Recovery Protection for Windows. The webinar will be a 30 minute informational overview of this turn-key solution. It will take place on Thursday, September 27th at 2 PM EDT (11 AM PDT).

Datanational's approach includes the Double-Take replication software, target hardware and software, required bandwidth, and 24/7 managed services. The webinar will review on how Datanational can provide this solution as a managed pay-as-you-go monthly subscription, without the need for significant capital expenses for your backup hardware, software and the support staff to monitor the implementation.
